

These vendors may be used for custom product being purchased by Stanford groups for internal use only. (Internal use includes product given away by campus groups as swag).

Most vendors on this list offer a wide variety of products. If you do not find what you are looking for please contact Stanford Trademark Licensing at trademark_licensing@stanford.edu for recommendations or to discuss your specific product needs.

Vendor rights vary slightly, so please be sure to select the appropriate licensee for your project.

- If product is purchased entirely with University funds AND given away for free, then all the vendors on this list may be used.
- If product is not being purchased entirely with University funds (for instance, campus group members are individually paying for a portion of or the entire cost of the product), or the cost for the product is included in a registration fee (so attendees to a conference, seminar, etc. are actually paying for the product) then the only vendors that may be used are those which have an asterisk (*) after their company name.

None of the vendors on this list may be used if product is to be sold to the general public.
