

THE MEDICINE & THE MUSE PROGRAM
PRESENTS: A VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM

Medicine & the Muse 2020

Medicine: The Many 'I's We
Embody in Medicine

28 May 2020

5:30 p.m.

<https://stanford.zoom.us/j/259932078>

Order of Events

Welcome

Dr. Bryant Lin, Clinical Associate Professor, Medicine –
Primary Care and Population Health

Opening Remarks

Rose Wong, Student Committee Director

Student Performances

Stephen Marcott – "Just a Blond Kid"

Valery Lou & Vivian Lou: Vivaldi, Violin Concerto in A minor,
III. Allegro

Lillie Reed – "The Givens"

Mika Tabata – "Garden"

Rebecca Bromley-Dulfano – "Mental Status vs. The Universe"

Jane Thomas – "Poetry and Consent Paperwork Penned with Crayola Markers: Reflections on Writing as a Psychiatric Intervention"

Keynote Speaker

Ken Browne, on his film
"Why Doctors Write"

Closing Remarks

Dr. Audrey Shafer,
Medicine and the Muse Director

STUDENT CREATIVE WORKS

View on Medicine & the Muse's Website

Alexis Doyle - "Disability, Medicine, and Quarantine: An Interview with Paqui Toscano"

Hannah Rasmussen - "In Dreams, Connected Perspectives on Chronic Headache Pain"

Vivian Ho - "Room H132", "On UTIs", and "The Moment of Death, as foretold by our Anatomy Cadaver"

Student Steering Committee

Rose Wong, MS2
Ashley Stevenson, MS1
Alana O'Mara, MS1
Victoria Yuan, '20
Kaitlin Corbin, MS2

With Special Thanks To

Dr. Bryant Lin
Dr. Audrey Shafer
Jacqueline Genovese
Christy Hartman

